Deliver Me

Fra Donaghy

Deliver me
from the darkest abyss from the depths of eternal rest grasping at the threads of sanity i meant it wasn't slipped through my hands i see the light
i see the end (x2)
i see a frail hope, crushed by the weight of world
i see the light
i see the end
i see a frail hope, crushed by the weight of world crushed by the weight of the world my will is broken (2x) sinking, always sinking the sands of time, forever slipping clawing at the emptiness but a ghost i reach towards the end lost in darkness, lost in time losing a grip on my fucking mind ignorance is an easy friend but in the end it takes everything fear it finds me, and it binds me. illuminate the planes of consciousness

fear it finds me, and it binds me but I'm lost Guilt Draws me down like a stone it chokes my throat and gnaws my bones regret breeds a heavy heart Reality, torn in two (3x) Canonised(2x)
a life that fades before my eyes Canonised
a life that fades before (before my eyes) Every faithful friend sorrow
sets its teeth (x2)

Eaten Alive
But I will survive
I survive
Fury, Deliver Me
How can you defeat what you can't kill (deliver me) I see the feat that twists inside (deliver me) I watch the shadows fill with doubt (deliver me)
Fury, Deliver Me
