Summer Song

The Forecast

It's giving way
To tired to sleep
The ground beneath me shakes
I hear your name
Seems like a dream
Sounds so far away
Summer, I don't mind
Waiting for autumn time
With you
Constantly changing as seasons do
When life gets loud
I lose my mind
We break without a sound
Still spinning 'round
To dull to shine
And when you fall, I'll catch you
Until you break again
You wake me up to say goodbye
I'll walk you down to the train
Tonight we fall asleep in each others arms
I will remember
We were like falling leaves
Dancing in the rain
The rain of change
Will we remain the same?
