Down

Candiria

I cannot sit back, shed my broken skin
Curse my pride, I react, play yourself again
Up, down and down again
You live in a computer, you're an instant man
Judged and told I can't, cut your shallow handsHow can I please all of your needs?
What do you see when you see me?I can't reach you
Step back, heard your point of view
Stand up, lay down for no one
Take a piece of me with you
Step back, now that I know you
I know, you're down for no oneI bow down to no one, you like the faith
Stand behind me, find your way
You know you will decide
Move on with me or step aside
I could have lost my life
And I'm made to risk it one more timeHow can I please all of your needs?
What do you see when you see me?I can't reach you
Step back, heard your point of view
Stand up, lay down for no one
Take a piece of me with you
Step back, now that I know you
I know, you're down for no oneI can't reach you
Step back, heard your point of view
Stand up, lay down for no one
Take a piece of me with you
Step back, now that I know you
I know you're down for no oneI can't reach you
Step back, heard your point of view
Stand up, lay down for no one
Take a piece of me, take a piece of me
Take a piece of me with you
