

Stay

Rex Goudie

A tide inside your heart
Keeps rising in the dark
Surrounds you like an ocean
And you can't keep from going under
Somewhere in the deep
I find you half asleep
'Cause I will never leave you
I will not forsake you
I will stay here with you while you fall
I won't say anything, anything at all
I will stay
When all the empty words
Won't take away the hurt
Even everything is broken
All the wounds are open, I'll be here
A shoulder you can cry on
A friend you can rely on
In between the shadows
Where no one else will follow
I will stay here with you while you fall
I won't say anything, anything at all
I will stay
I will stay here with you while you fall
I won't say anything, anything at all
I will stay
