Exit Mould

Pale Forest

Once again surrounded by moving walls vacating the innermost of human halls
Searching, I'm heading for the light Walking closer without frightWhats that?
A tricle, a shiver down her spine
Erase memory
be divineWhy do you remain silent
brother?
Why don't you speak your mind
sister?
Why walk the path of shoulders cold?
Exit mouldI'm here again, among trees and green meadows and people in countless rows Searching, I tread the paths in need of light embracing everyone in sightWhats this?
A story of feasts and wine?
Erase memory
be divineWhy do you remain silent
brother?
Why don't you speak your mind
sister?
Why walk the path of shoulders cold?
Exit mould
