Stavesacre

shed this wineskin, de-contain break this strain
this chain of unchange
"i(we) see clearly now the reign is gone..."separation-manifest six feet of bondage off my chest power to resist, power to resistwhat if this body moved as a whole?
"let my people" get on the "go!"
contain the zeal-maintain the flowplead inner-man to comprehend love of the Christ surpassing knowledge what is its width, length, height, and depth...?oh my...passion... tell me... if you know any meaning transcending this birth and death (and the point of everything in between?justify yourself (this hell) i've heard each word that you've said, and with all due respect.. save itwhere were you when i was calling when i was falling away?(2x)worldly wisdom mocked-convenient second guess get these shackles off-don't want them on again you had your foot on my neck-He lifted up my head separate, we are separate... you have nothing to offer...me
