Bloody Experience

Penumbra

I remember now.
Moon said take him, take / [...take him, take]
It was in this town / [to start is so hard]
Thousand images in my head / [but to continue is your faith]Wind was very cold
Weapon were my hands
Blood was very hot
Sanity runs across the landI had promised her / [Don't forget]
The serment is kept / [you had promised me]
My name is colder / [my love, my puppet , my body]
That night and that deathThis is my family
Look above your head
Nineteen eighty-three
The death was its bedMy tears are the price / you need me
For your eyes and your heart / to enlighten your soul
My mind's under ice / to show you the blood
My feet not on the earthOver my cold cell
I'm looking for you
You're my fair, my shell
And I'll come to you
