

Proof

Olivia Jean

Hold my breath
Another day
Til you make up your mind
Won't allow
A single beat
To pass this heart of mine
What a fool
I must be
To place my hopes so high
What a fool
You must see
In my eager eyes I want a little proof
That you love me
I dare you
To force the damn words out
Cuz it feels like
You're standing above me
Cast away under
A shadow of doubt The silence
Is the saddest sound
That I have ever known
All this pain
For a promise
That can't be carved in stone
Confusion
Is weighing on
My patience and my pride
Yet I'll wait
Another day
With you by my side I want a little proof
That you love me
I dare you
To force the damn words out
Cuz it feels like
You're standing above me
Cast away under
A shadow of doubt
