[Music: Schulman]

[Lyrics: Schulman] Under the sky of blackened clouds

A moonfog shall arise Seven winds of hate

Awaits...

I raise my sword to the sky to the sphere where the ravens fly

Seal the sign of the twilight horde Life, eternal life

You're devoured as one

Dominion of centuries behind Across the horizon in North

The forces are moving further

Through mountains of snow and ice

They ride...

A century of blood

In the name of dark

Total wrath and pure destruction Upon the throne of infernal blood

I'm the ruler of a burning kingdom

Blazing skies and winter nights

My princess of fear is born The seven keys to the seven gates

Makes my land open wide

The wolves are gathered in the woods

A new era has been born
