

Action / Adventure

Andrew Bird

Now if you think I'm wasting your time again
I'm wasting your time
When you pick me up in duty free
That's when I thought I'd be the cross in your T or must see TV But if you think I'm wasting your time again
No, you're wasting mine
When you're playing for a prime-time dream
The C N B scene
Now I'm just another split in your seam the I in your team Ooh, please don't get too excited
Ooh, maybe you're not invited to my action adventure
My action adventure dream So when you think you're on the fast track
You find it's just a culdesac back
In that adult lifestyle community
Where all your little boys, your action toys are duty free Ooh, please don't get too excited
Ooh, maybe you're not invited to my action adventure
My action adventure dream So I wonder what you got your persona for
'Cause there's a two for one down at the corner-store
And I wonder could ya pep it up a bit, you know throw a fit
You go ahead and dance, I'll just sit But if you think I'm wasting your time again
No, you're wasting mine
When you're playing for a prime-time dream
The C N B scene
Now I'm just another split in your seam the I in your team So I'm looking at the back of my hand again
I'm looking at the back of my hand again
To what end if I can't even find a goddamn pen
