

Here I Am

Southerland Nights

As soon as I tasted the nectar of sweetest sin
I could never doubt myself again
Disconnected from voices inside my head
Disregarding everything they've said

Here I am
Imagine what you could do if you knew that you'd never ever fail (Hey! Hey!)
Imagine who you could be if you seized every moment of every day (Hey! Hey! Hey!)
How can you fail if you never try? (Hey!)
Are you afraid or are you alive?
Are you alive? You meant everything to me
Loved you so hopelessly
Screaming then now an echo fades
Hid beneath the world we made
The sky was the limit, now we've touched the moon
Open your heart, who knows what you'll do
