Waiting

Aquanote

I look for you in every strangers eyes
In the light of the moon and the sunrise
I feel for you deep inside my heart
You've always been here
Though we've always been apartWe all need a little loving in our lifetime
But until you bring that love into my life I'mWaiting for you
Reaching only for you
Hoping for you, for you
Praying I'm praying
Waiting, reaching, hoping, prayingI've spent my time
Working through my troubled past
It's my desire
To make a love that lastsI don't wanna see you
With eyes filled with expectation
I don't wanna run from you
Out of fear of separationWe all need a little loving in our lifetime
But until you bring that love into my life I amWaiting for you
Reaching only for you
Hoping for you, for you
Praying, I'm prayingWaiting for you
Reaching only for you
Hoping for you, for you
Praying, I'm praying, oh praying, yeahWaiting, reaching, hoping, praying
Waiting, reaching, hoping, prayingI'm waiting
Reaching
Hoping
Yeah, oh I'm praying
