Come With Me

Dappy

Somebody Better ring 999 if they wanna get rid of me call the coastguard, bring the military i never came to pose for no photo i aint a statue, dont take liberties exclusive imports from italy i got swagger thats sharp like a guillotine I see a couple good girls that are feeling me But only bad girls get into my billie jeans They Be loving me becuase i give them what they ask for Follow me, they let me out the hard door
I hear gossip cause i'm in the heat Anyting that im packin needs its own passport
I thought he was a spaceman, am only playing fam
I'm looking at short skirts, Through Raybans High heels, And fake tans
We go stumbling down the stairs im wavey
Hold me up
Hows your night cuz, you got a light blud So is that your girl, she's high still Somebody is coming home with me tonight i mite do something i regret tonight, i dont care Cause when i wake up..... i - i -i i wont remember i wont remember a thing if only you could stay like this for ever Then i'll be living the dream, dream dream (your comin with me)
ay ay ay ay ay ay ay ay ay
It feels like the night couldnt get any better Feel like any girl i want, i can get her I'm getting hot, i might take of my top

But i'll still make it rain better get an umbrella what ella ella forget about your fella Got a table full of great goose and dont please Put your purse back in ya bag, tonights on me never know tommorow you could be on page 3 Fall to the floor, feeling bad like a jagerbomb

No jetski can ride this wave i'm on Who knows, if i wave my wand i might turn your girl into a baby mum So dont you wish your boyfriend had a uh like me
I'm looking at short skirts, through Raybans
High heels, Fake tans We go stumbling down the stairs am wavey
hold me up
hows ya night gone, you got a light hun is that man he's a right plank somebodies comin home with me tonight I might do something i regret but i dont care Cause when i wake up i wont remember Remember a thing
If only you could stay like this forever
then i'll be living the dream, dream, dream (your comin with me)
ay ay ay ay ay ay ay ay ay
I dont care, cause when i wake up I wont remember, remember a thing if only like you could stay like this forever then i'll be living a dream, dream, dream (your comin with me)
ay ay ay ay ay ay ay ay ay
