Wake Up

Sahara Hotnights

Did you wake up one long drawn out morning
[Unverified] blessed with the naked [unverified]?
Were you feeling rather ashamed of your madness
When you found out that one body was missing?Oh, [unverified] feel so fine
And it's time to clean up this mess, right nowAnd will you ever take it back?
They have decided not to let you out
Then will you ever take it back?
They have decided not to let you outAnd did you believe, in every word he said
A storyteller and a thief, yeah, he was a betrayer and a creep
And is the big, black animal that moves in your maze
As you consider slicing your wrist, right now, so go on Oh, hey, let's do this
