

Ashes Are Burning (feat. Andy Power & Al Stewart)

Renaissance

Travel the days of freedom
Roads leading everywhere
Come with me now
And show how you care Follow the dying embers
Cross on the paths they lay
Breath of the past
The earth's yesterday Clear your mind, maybe you will find
That the past is still turning
Circles sway, echo yesterday
Ashes burning, ashes burning Colors are fading starlight
Silver the way to find
Walking the shadows
There in our mind Changing the order slowly
Leaving the mist of time
Fingers are holding
Fragments of mine Clear your mind, maybe you will find
That the past is still turning
Circles sway, echo yesterday
Ashes burning, ashes burning Imagine the burning embers
They glow below and above
Your sins you won't remember
And all you'll find there is love Ashes are burning brightly
The smoke can be seen from afar
So now you're seeing how far
Ashes are burning the way
Ashes are burning the way
