Envy On the Coast

I'll rape this city just to show you she's as pretty in the night as day...
I kiss bottles even though I know that they'll become my currency
I'm made of books, and drunks, and people, who I thought I should become,
And I'll swallow anything
That seems to look just like a key, yeah...I'll rape this city just to show you she's as pretty in the night as day...
I kiss bottles even though I know that they'll become my currency
I'm made of books and drugs and people who I thought I should become
And I swallow anything that seems to look like a key, yeah...She say's, "You're hurting me..." "I can't feel a thing."
I said, "Don't worry cause I can't feel a thing."
(I can't feel a thing! )
I said, "Don't worry cause I can't feel a thing..." "The anchor, the appetite.
Why don't you tell me how I lost my way?
They taught me to love with my eyes and my fists
So I bought a blindfold and medical tape. I broke all of the rules I made
We're in a shroud made out of cellophane.
Now I'll swallow anything
That reminds I am temporary here. She pushed in deep,
Wearing nothing but her bones
She said, "you're hurting me..." "I can't feel a thing. I said, "Don't worry cause I can't feel a thing."
(I can't feel a thing! )
I said, "Don't worry cause I can't feel a thing."
(I can't feel a thing! )
I said, "Don't worry cause I can't feel a thing."
(I can't feel a thing! )
I said, "Don't worry cause I can't feel a thing." "I'll fall in love with you or anyone...
I'll fall in love with you or anyone...
(I can't feel a thing! )
I'll fall in love with you or anyone...
(I can't feel a thing! )
And I'll fall in love with you or anyone! Yeah!
(I can't feel a thing! )
FALL in love with you! And I'll fall in love with you!
(I said don't worry 'cause I can't feel a thing...)
(I can't feel a thing! )
I could fall in love with you or ANYONE!
(I said don't worry 'cause I can't feel a thing...)
