

The Truth

Down By Law

Feelin' high and feelin' low
You're just standing there
With no where to go
You can't win if you're all hooked up
One day you're out of luck and
There's no finding some
If you don't watch you're step
You'd better watch you're step cause
You will always lose
Now depressions hit and you're after it
And that's a bad excuse
The wrong thing to do is to
Pretend that you
Haven't got a problem
You didn't have to cause this pain
To yourself
You can change anytime you want
Just don't get in too deep cause
I'm worried
That that's gonna tear us apart
I knew that it would
