

My Little Empire (Live at Glastonbury '99)

Manic Street Preachers

My little empire has risen and it's set
My little empire is as good as it can get
My little empire is coming around
My little empire it don't make a sound My royalty it does not exist
It is extinct for the eye to see
My ideology it is dead and gone
Almost forgotten for the eye to see My little empire I'm sick of being sick
My little empire I'm tired of being tired
My little empire I'm bored of being bored
My little empire I'm happy being sad All of my sins are attempts to fill the voids
All of my voids they are filled with sin
All of my demons they are kept within
And all my violence it does not exist My little empire I'm happy being sad
My little empire I'm fucked with being fucked
My little empire I'm done with being dumb
My little empire I'm happy being sad Happy being sad happy being sad happy being sad
