

Ohio Is for Lovers (live acoustic on Q101)

Hawthorne Heights

Hey there,
I know it's hard to feel like I don't care at all.
Where you are and how you feel.
Put these lights off as these wheels
Keep rolling on and on. (and on and on and on...)
Slow things down or speed them up.
Not enough or way too much. (and on and on and on...)
Are you and I gone?[Chorus:]
And I can't make it on my own.
(And I can't make it on my own.)
Because my heart is in Ohio.
So cut my wrists and black my eyes.
(Cut my wrists and black my eyes)
So I can fall asleep tonight, or die.
Because you kill me.
You know you do, you kill me well.
You like it too, and I can tell.
You never stop until my final breath is gone. Spare me just three last words.
"I love you" is all she heard.
I'll wait for you, but I can't wait forever.
[x2][Choruses w/ ad-libs]

Songwriters

BUCCIARELLI-TIEGER, ERON / CARLI, MICAH / WOODRUFF, JAMES II / RIDENOUR, MATTHEW / CALVERT, CASEY

Published by Lyrics © Another Victory Publishing Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>