

You Move Me

Poi Dog Pondering

02: you move me:
i saw you standing there underneath the window of my soul and i couldn't keep from hoping that someday you, i could hold
you move me,
i can't keep from trying,
no one is mine in my mind like you now i only wish i could hold you now nobody knows and no one cares that i can't keep from looking at you - i stare if i had one wish it would be to tell you that i long to hold you near me

you move me,
i can't keep from trying,
no one is mine in my mind like you now though i don't know you in my heart i hold you - wish i could hold you now

you don't know me, like i know you i wanna know your name i wanna show you about me i'm wondering will i lose the way?

will there be no me?
will i live in misery?
with out you...
