God Exchange

John Ludwig

Sometimes in my life, I get drawn into the world
Caught up in the latest thing, my headâ€™s all in a whirl
Seems that I just have to trade, the simple for complex
Living for my selfish nows, forgetting what comes next

CHORUS 1
Thatâ€™s a God exchange, the worst deal you can make Focus not on giving, but the things that I can take Forget the truth before me, get swallowed by the fake
Thatâ€™s a God exchange, the worst deal you can make

Politics in my job, can dominate each day
The scheming and positioning, to get it my own way
The deal is done without, any consequence today
Believing that is how Iâ€™m, supposed to earn my pay

CHORUS 1

Working seems to get all of, my best energy
By the time Iâ€™m finally home, thereâ€™s not much left in me
But love of gold is giving way, to Godâ€™s sweet love of me
Turning to my savior who, died to set me free

CHORUS 2
Thatâ€™s a God exchange, the best deal you can make
Focus on the giving, not the things that I can take Remember truth before me, give up on the fake
Thatâ€™s a God exchange, the best deal you can make

Perhaps, like me, you will go another way
Climbing towards the mountaintop, and a brighter day
Make a God exchange, try to rearrange
What holds you back from His way, the things that you should change
