My Heaven

Christoph Schindling

I can feel you pull me under
I can feel you staring there
I can feel you watching me over
Seems like there is no other
Seems like I lost a world
And as you follow me I wonder
And I?ve fallen to the ground
And every time I turn around
I feel your shadow there
Calling me, calling me
It?s all security
You?ve locked me in without a key
No matter how I try
I can?t get you out of my heaven
Every time I try to sleep
I can hear the sound of angels
Crying my tears for me
Some things are not to keep
Some hearts fall too deep
And reasons are hard to see
And I?ve fallen to the ground
And every time I turn around
I feel your shadow there
Calling me, calling me
It?s all security
You?ve locked me in without a key
No matter how I try
I can?t get you out of my heaven
Ain?t it strange that every time
I see your face I lose my mind
Every time I try to break away from you
I lose myself, I lose myself, I lose myself
And I?ve fallen to the ground
And every time I turn around
I feel your shadow there
Calling me, calling me
It's all security
You've locked me in without a key
No matter how I try

I can't get you out of my heaven
