We Have Band

This sound don't break, don't make me
This sound don't please, don't make me

This sound don't break, don't make me
This sound don't please, don't make me Switch on TV, flashback Taylor's talking
When you go see me, this is a final warning
This sound don't please, don't make me Is it a calling or am I only dreaming?
Heats on repeat burns through in the morning
This sound don't please, don't make me
This is, this is, this is a honeytrap
This is, this is, this is a honeytrap Sandman send me
(It's only rain)
East, west, a new direction
(It's only rain, it's only rain)
He's on standby
(It's only rain)
For your own protection
