

Cry To Laugh

Blake Mills

On the hunt to feed all my little pains
Broke a branch and scared away the game
Still trackin' this big buck through the rain
I try, but I cry to laugh I can't tell when I'm bein' true to anyone and it looks like the odds are bein' fixed
To be the prime suspect in all the deaths
I try, but I cry to laugh I tried believing that I could be only a man
You just want to do as you have always have done but you can't
Did ever really need your help Tell me something I already know about myself or is this a joke that only time could tell I cry whenever I try to laugh I tried believing that I could be only a man
You just want to do as you have always have done
but you can't
You woke me up just as my dream's begun
I don't believe that I'm the only one Cause every scene's so beautifully undone
He tries, but he cries to laugh
Still he tries but he cries to laugh
I try but I cry to laugh
