

The Tigers Have Spoken

Neko Case

they shot the tiger on his chain in a field behind the cages he walked in circles till he was crazy and he lived that way forever and he lived that way beside them separate from the other tigers he could not know another tiger
they shot the tiger on his chain
walked in circles till he was crazy

just as long as he could remember if he'd wanted to remember when was the last time that he felt alive when he saw that brown haired lady she fed with a bottle as a baby and he recalled her face and smiled they shot that tiger on his chain
they shot the tiger on his chain
they shot the tiger on his chain
they shot the tiger on his chain
they shot the tiger on his chain
