Hurting Me Now

Sia

You, you don't like my hair
You don't like what I wear
I'm trying, trying, you see I'm trying
While you try to change me all the timeYou, you say I talk too much
I know it drives you nuts
You tell me you wish I was better, better, yeah
You roll your eyes forgetting I'm in the roomYou're hurting me now
You take me down and you don't even know it
You think it's a joke
But baby, you don't, you don't even noticeYou're hurting me now
You take me down and you don't even know it
You think it's a joke
But baby, you don't, you don't even noticeYou, you say I sing too loud
I want you to be proud
I want you screaming out that girl is mine
I love her, love her, but you've already tuned me outYou, you know these words you say
Are causing us decay
You feel I am withdrawing, I am running away
You're pushing, you're pushing meYou're hurting me now
You take me down and you don't even know it
You think it's a joke
But baby, you don't, you don't even noticeYou're hurting me now
You take me down and you don't even know it
You think it's a joke
But baby, you don't, you don't even noticeDon't want you to blow it, you're hurting me
I know you don't know it
Don't want you to blow it, you're hurting me
I know you don't know itDon't want you to blow it, you're hurting me
I know you don't know it
Don't want you to blow it, you're hurting me
I know you don't know itYou're hurting me now
You take me down and you don't even know it
You think it's a joke
But baby, you don't, you don't even noticeYou're hurting me now
You take me down and you don't even know it
You think it's a joke
But baby, you don't, you don't even notice
