

Angel of Harlem

U2

It was a cold and wet December day
When we touched the ground at JFK
    Snow was melting on the ground
        On BLS I heard the sound
Of an angelNew York, like a Christmas tree
    Tonight this city belongs to me
    AngelSoul love, this love won't let me go
    So long, angel of HarlemBirdland on fifty three
        The street sounds like a symphony
        We got John Coltrane and a love supreme
Miles, and she's got to be an angelLady Day got diamond eyes
    She sees the truth behind the lies
    AngelSoul love this love won't let me go
        So long angel of Harlem
Angel of HarlemShe says it's heart, heart and soul
    Yeah yeah (yeah)
    Yeah yeah (right now)Blue light on the avenue
        God knows they got to you
        An empty glass, the lady sings
        Eyes swollen like a bee sting
        Blinded you lost your way
    Through the side streets and the alleyway
        Like a star exploding in the night
        Falling to the city in broad daylight
        An angel in Devil's shoes
        Salvation in the blues
        You never looked like an angel
Yeah yeah angel of HarlemAngel angel of Harlem
    Angel angel of Harlem
    Angel angel of Harlem
    Angel angel of Harlem

Lyrics provided by
<https://damlyrics.com/>