

Burning

Fuel Fandango

One day somebody will give me off
the life I gave to you
there is always somebody on the other side of the moon one day somebody
will give me off
on the other side of the moon my body is learning, burning
every mistake is moving me up but I'm still right here I'm still right here full of emotions
full of love
where's the life I gave you where's the life I gave to you
where's the life I gave to you it was a long long long long road we need to turn and jump it was a long long long long road
my body is learning,
burning,
every mistake is moving me up
my body is learning,
burning,
is moving me up
where's the life I gave you?
Where's the life I gave to you? (Burning) With the light of the moon my body is burning
With the light of the moon
learning

learning
learningMy body is learning
learning
every mistake
every mistake is is moving me up
Where's the life I gave you?
Where's the life I gave to you?
Where's the life I gave you?
Where's the life I gave to you?
