Too Good to You Baby

B.B. King

Ohh, I know you've been cheatin' on me, baby
And I know you don't mean me no good
Hey, I know you've been cheatin' on me, baby
And I know you don't mean me no good
That's why I blame myself, baby
Because I didn't treat you like I shouldOhh, I was too good to you
I gave you everythin' I own
Ohh, I was too good, too good to you, baby
Gave you everythin' I own
That's why I blame myself, baby
Every time you do me wrongHey, you've got your eyes wide open, baby
But you're travelin' down the wrong road
Ohh, your eyes is wide open, baby
But your travelin' down the wrong road
A wine drinkin' and cheatin' woman
Is one thing I can't afford
