

Clauses (Live At Hultsfred 1999)

Entombed

is there anything worth fighting for?
where do we go but nowhere I lean against my own restraints traffic noise deflect the voices felt strewn down but I still ain't heading for defeat
strong in mind
a will to win
I stand my ground
there's a first time for everything strong in heart I stalk my path narrow minded but oh so wide seldom seen a view so clear force the enemy on my side it came so vast
it's all one to me
struck down my past
it's about time to break free heading to win
strong in mind
a will to win
I stand my ground
heading for one
strong in mind
I stand my ground
