

Christine

Craig Finn

She went to Memphis with some dentist
That she met on some weird website.
She came back three days later.
She couldn't speak for a week. At the diner after bar time.
In the bright lights eating french fries.
She starts to cry. Christine reads magazines.
New York. Los Angeles. New York.
Everyone wants something.
I just want Christine.
She says let's move to the city.
Stay up all night. Live the high life.
I said maybe first we should visit.
Make sure that we like it. Christine reads magazines.
New York. Los Angeles. New York.
Everyone wants something.
I just want Christine. She went to Pittsburgh with some pilot.
She said she tried it but didn't like it.
When she came back all distracted
Sort of shaky. Sad and silent. In the diner eating french fries.
In the bright lights after bar time.
She starts to cry.
And says you're such a good guy.
Christine reads magazines.
New York. Los Angeles. New York.
Everyone wants something.
I just want Christine.
