

Perfume

Rag'n'Bone Man

The scent of skin & bone
Puts to end all our woes
Bring empires to their halt
Steal the breath from lungs
Fragrance of love
Can tear a man apart
Long way from home
The traces of her perfume is all I got
The first note descends
Enough to stop a heart
Third note becomes
A familiar sense of home
Time ticks like a slow tap drips down a hole
Waiting for the bright lights
And the curtain call
I don't feel
I don't feel myself
Feel like a hopeless soul
