The Watchers

Septic Flesh

[Music: Sotiris V., Lyrics: Sotiris V.]The watchers learned to fly and bridged the realms defined
The wealth was spreading far and wide
A sorcery divineFrom the abode of heavens the seed of life was cast
Celestial orbs and fireballs from conflict fashioned lands
Nocturnal treasures glow and frozen crystals dance
The wealth was spreading far and wide
A sorcery divineFallen angels
They were called: the feared
The loved
The worshiped
They came to built the new empire
To make a land of promiseProtectors of the realms
These beacons in the sky
They warned about the cataclysm their sons that led mankindEmpire of the WatchersFrom the abode of heavens the seed of life was cast
Celestial orbs and fireballs from conflict fashioned lands
Nocturnal treasures glow and frozen crystals dance
The wealth was spreading far and wide
A sorcery divineThe watchers learned to fly
and bridged the realms defined
The wealth was spreading far and wide
A sorcery divine
