You Get Me Every Time

The Elms

One side of the mirrors who you are
The other side is who you want to be
And when youre through wishing you were more
Well, you can settle back and let your Father breatheIve been warned, Ive been warnedAnd between the eyes,
You get me every time
Ive wrapped myself in fear, now I cant shine
Between the eyes, You get me every time
Get me outta here, get me outta here, I wanna shineI can see a hundred miles away
But I cant see whats right before my eyes
And when Im through trying to be brave
Then I realize that all my courage diesIve been warned, Ive been warnedAnd between the eyes, You get me every time
Ive wrapped myself in fear, now I cant shine
Between the eyes, You get me every time
Get me outta here, get me outta here, I wanna shineIm going on, if Im wrong, Youll walk with me
Im going on, if Im wrong, Youll walk with meOne side of the mirrors who you are
The other side is who you want to beAnd between the eyes, You get me every time
Ive wrapped myself in fear, now I cant shine
Between the eyes, You get me every time
Get me outta here, check me outta here, I wanna shineI wanna shine, ooh
I wanna shine, I wanna shineOne side of the mirrors who you are
The other side is who you want to be
