

Falling Down

Mario

All i ever wanna do is get you all alone to love your sexy your sexy attitude it makes it all worth it when i put this lovin on you ohh all its takes is getting close and your heart will be exposed trust me once i get a hold i'm never let goi bet you wont be standing when it all falls down there's no way you'll be standing up at all cause your legs are off the ground girl you ain't gonna be standing up at all cause falling in love means falling down but I'll pick you up babyyou ain't gotta make a move just lay in there and I'll be right there right there next to you i'll be at your service do all of the things you want to lighting candles kissing slow closing blinds locking doors trust me once i get a hold of you im never letting goi bet you wont be standing when it all falls down
cause falling in love means falling down but I'll pick you up babyall night all day
all of your life
just call out my name and ill be sure to satisfy your wish's you'll be lifted off the groundi bet you wont be standing when it all falls down
cause falling in love means falling down but I'll pick you up baby
