Passage

In Hearts Wake

We're taking on water
How long do you think we'll last
Before we have to abandon ship?
I see the end and it's coming fast
We started this war
So why are we surprised that the Earth fought back?
Thunder cracks like a broken back
Close your eyes, brace for the impactBrace for the impact
All we want is safe passage
But you can't set sail when the sails are damaged
I can't stand it
Who's steering the ship?
We just drift in the eye of the storm
Who's steering the ship?
Don't let it slip
Resist! Resist!We've torn apart this precious ark as fuel for the fire
A charred and blackened future sold to the highest buyer
All we want is safe passage
But you can't set sail when the sails are damaged
I can't stand itWho's steering the ship?
We just drift in the eye of the storm
Who's steering the ship?
Don't let it slip
Resist! Resist!
Pull me up from the undertow
Follow the sun, let the wind fill our sails
Pull me up from the undertow
Chart a new course, and the ark will prevailWho's steering the ship?
We just drift in the eye of the storm
Who's steering the ship?
Don't let it slip
Resist! Resist!
