

Stay

Lee DeWyze

Your hair looks wonderful
Your clothes well kept
I know you're wide awake
But I haven't slept yet
It's almost ten o'clock
And before you leave
Make sure the door is locked Unless you stay for a while
I know it's getting near
Why don't you stay for a while
It's hard to say I love you dear
I love you dear And then you leave with smiles
And you return with tears
Now you have made come true
All of my biggest fears
It's almost twelve o'clock
And before you leave
Make sure the door is locked Unless you stay for a while
I know it's getting near
Why don't you stay for a while
It's hard to say I love you dear Your hair looks wonderful
Your clothes are so well kept
I know you're wide awake
But I haven't slept yet
I haven't slept Why don't you stay for a while
I know it's getting near
Why don't you stay for a while
It's hard to say I love you dear
I love you dear My hair looks wonderful
My clothes are so well kept
I know I'm wide awake
And you haven't slept yet
You haven't slept yet Why don't you stay for a while
I know it's getting near
Why don't you stay for a while
It's hard to say I love you dear
I love you dear
