

My Devotion

Life In Your Way

This road is worn it's a long walk to home
Rest seems lost on my own
The world has no mercy for me
All I need is something to live for and stand by A love that's true
I have passion for freedom
I want truth to set me free
This is where my feet slip Where's my devotion to you?
What's truth. belief?
The point that stands
Beginning, reason It's the breaking of a heart
I've been put down and let down
But I've been touched cared for and held onto Cried many times "make this right"
