Aftermath

Drist

The blood we drank lay still
The water burns and echoes your name
I don't wanna face the day
Or whisper hints of your nameSay goodbye to all we've lost
And all the sons we'd never been blessed
But you hold your times we've fought
A lesson learned by painThis is not the way it's supposed to be!
To be!(Chorus):
Hey! Looking back, you will find the answers
Hey! Looking back, you will see the aftermathThe traps are laid, all still
The thoughts will help devour your name
The sky spread red with guilt
A shadow draped with your nameThis is not the way it's supposed to be!
To be!(Chorus):
Hey! Looking back, you will find the answers
Hey! Looking back, you will see the aftermathGuitar Solo/Bridge(Chorus x2):
You will see the aftermath
Hey! Looking back, you will see the aftermath (x5)
