Lord I Guess I'll Never Know

The Verve

Lord, I guess I'll never knowI heard you stirring in your sleep last night
I was awake with something on my mind
What happens when I leave, will you come with me?
These things I guess, I'll never knowTell me, who do you see when you die in your dreams?
Tell me, who do you touch when you come in your dreams?I know that sometimes I get lost
Been asking questions since the day I could talk
Life is sweet but when my bones get cold
Will you be there for me to hold?Tell me, who do you see when you die in your dreams?
Tell me, who do you touch when you come in your dreams?
Tell me, who do you see when you die in your dreams?
Tell me, could it be yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, you holding meOh, Lord, I guess I'll never know
Oh, Lord, I guess I'll never knowWhen you die in your dreams
Oh, Lord, I guess I'll never know
Will I be holding you?
Oh, Lord, I guess I'll never knowWhen I die in my sleep
Oh, Lord, I guess I'll never know
Will I be holding you?
Oh, Lord, I guess I'll never knowWhen you come in your dreams
Oh, Lord, I guess I'll never know
Am I holding you?
Oh, Lord, I guess I'll never knowWhen you come in your dreams
Oh, Lord, I guess I'll never know
Am I holding you?
Oh, Lord, I guess I'll never know
