

Strangers No More

Jenny Phillips

He knows your road
You're not alone
He's walked your every step
He has been true
He's counting on you
He hopes you won't forget
So take up your cross
Remember He fought for you

Can you hear Him call
From the garden walls?
Come and be reborn
He stands at the door
Let Him in
And be strangers no more

He bought a slate
Wiped clean through His name
For all those who will believe
He offers His light
He offers new life
To all those who will receive
So take up your cross
Remember He fought for you
Stand and be true

Can you hear Him call
From the garden walls?
Come and be reborn
He stands at the door
Let Him in

Oh it is wonderful
That He should care for me
Enough to die for me

Jesus once of humble birth
Now in glory comes to earth

Christ the Lord is risen today
Allelujah

Come and find this Man of Miracles
Leave your nets and follow Him
And be strangers no more

Can you hear Him calling?
Can you hear Him calling?
Can you hear Him?
Hear Him call
