

Grab It

Reichelt

Help me off your back
I found it's so futile to attack
So what else you got

You won't tell the truth until you're caughtI'll be in your room, you'll be comin' soon
I'll be gone all day grab it that's your wayI wish I could pretend

But you'll fire one off at me again
Revenge me, now don't it seem like

You're a little sweetIn your room, who was willing? Got to assume
Felt too hard, pain is chilling, caught off guard

And now should I fall apart?I'll be in your room, you'll be comin' soon
Take it out of me, grab it that's your sceneWell, I'm not feeling well
It's not goin' so good, oh can't you tell?

It's a crazy time

Fire one off at me and I'll be fineIn your room, who was willing? Got to assume
Felt too hard, pain is chilling, caught off guard

Sooner should I fall apart?It's so crazed, you were swingin'
Still amazed, what's in your laugh?

You're still swingin', you're so unfazed
I'd no idea you'd go this farIf I look back, would you hear?
If that's what you decide to believe
