

Undone

Josh Joplin Group

And I want to be down
And I want to get up
And I want to lay low
And I want to be loved
But a dream makes noise, you better check your head
Ambition is mine and it's heavy as lead
The sum of any outcome
Undone And I want find peace
And I want to get through
And I want come clean
And I want to be true
As I turn a page on a life less lived
All I have I would gladly give
The sum of any outcome
Undone I am mine, I am mine again
I recognize who it is that I am
I am mine, I am mine again
Can any one tell me where I've been?
I am mine, I am mine again
All we've lost is time in the end
Waiting for the sum of any outcome
Undone And I want to find faith
And I want to be sure
And I want to say less
And I want to know more
I am not alone, I never have been
We are all one, we divide within
The sum of any outcome
Undone
