Freak Me Out

Nicotine

PERSON A:
I know you're two-faced born to lie
That's why you never make friends
Next time I'll make you look a fool
You deserve to get some punishment
You freaked me out once again
I can't stand it anymore
Don't chase my ass 'cause I hate you
Leave me alone
Don't freak me outPERSON B:
Hello, my friend
You said to me before
But I can't tell you goodbye
You should know
I'm always just behindPERSON B:
You owe me a hundred by the way
We both know I'll never get paid
Sometime I will get my revenge
You deserve to get this punishment
You freaked me out once again
I can't stand it anymore
I'm gonna stalk you and chase you
Pay me what you owe
Don't freak me outPERSON A:
Hello, my friend
You said to me before
But I can't tell you goodbye
'cause I know you are Always close behind
