

We Don't Need Who You Think You Are

Skunk Anansie

Succulent white, secrete revenge
God gives right for you and your laws
You kill and dine, in cold sublime God licks your face
'Cos we don't need who you are
We don't need who you are
'Cos we don't need who you think you are
Cute nigger views in sweet terrain
Choke it blind so lame tourist news
Step back in time, grieving minds God licks your face
'Cos we don't need who you are
We don't need who you are
'Cos we don't need who you think you are
God licks your face, just like your dog
Starve the minds and drain the face
Segregate shit, nigga race
Cry for credible debate
But now them blackies legislate
So leave for Anglo-Aussie shores
There you'll find your heaven
As we all start again
'Cos we don't need who you are
We don't need who you are
Cos we don't need who you think you are
Starve the minds and drain the face
Segregate shit, nigger race
But now them blackies legislate, oh
