

The One

Gary Allan

No rush though I need your touch
I won't rush your heart
Until you feel on solid ground
Until your strength is found, girl I'll fill those canyons in your souls, like a river lead you home
And I'll walk a step behind in the shadows, so you shine
Just ask it will be done and I will prove my love
Until you're sure that I'm the one Somebody else was here before
He treated you unkind
The broken wings need time to heal
Before a heart can fly, girl I'll fill those canyons in your souls, like a river lead you home
And I'll walk a step behind in the shadows, so you shine
Just ask it will be done and I will prove my love
Until you're sure that I'm the one Trust in me and you'll find a heart so true
All I want to do is give the best of me to you and stand beside you Just ask it will be done and I will prove my love
Until you're sure that I'm the one
