

The Night of the Age

Dark Moor

When the golden dusk covers me
And the beams play with the trees Memories so come to my heart
Because the guardian of the dreams departs[Bridge:]
Who stole my illusions?
Who stole my hopes?
Why did the light off
Unseen I grope?
Where will I find the force
'To untie the past's rope' ---((not coherent enough)) in my soul?[Chorus:]
Go on Within the black night of the age getting my sadness turn to rage
Even oblivion
So feeling will be free again the dreams will break the chains flying to the eternity Sometimes in dreams I see her eyes Watching me like wells of lies
Those in the cold cloak of the night
Were my sole flame , of whom I was acolyze[Bridge][Chorus]Where are the guardians of their dreams, Return to me
Tell me the answers that my mind will live again[Chorus]
