

Could You Be Mine?

Starsailor

From the moment the dawn breaks
Panic the headache, sick on the floor
My television, they canvas opinion
Are we going to war? I sing for you darling, hope that you're hearing
Got you in mind
Cometh the hour, cometh the power
Making you mine I looked in your eye
Fell from the sky, lying dry
Panic is blue, so is the truth
Could you be mine, tonight? And I feel like I'm flying faster than lightening
Across the floor
Give me that reason, something to please them
Couldn't ask for more I sing for you darling, hope that you're hearing
Got you in mind
Cometh the hour, cometh the power
Making you mine I looked in your eye
Fell from the sky, lying dry
Panic is blue, so is the truth
Could you be mine, tonight? Came in through the wrong door
And lost my life
The verdict we returned with
Was soon in sight I looked in your eye
Fell from the sky, lying dry
Panic is blue, so is the truth
Could you be mine, tonight?
