

Unclear

The Jon Spencer Blues Explosion

I am trying to learn and I'm dying to know
When to move on and when to let it go
A curious feeling no one can explain
I just don't know if I'll risk it again
When the futures so unsure
When the futures so unclear
So you swallow your heart and you swallow your pride
You gotta be tough if you wanna survive
They'll chew up and they'll eat you alive
You shouldn't give up on the dreams in your mind
When the futures so unsure
When the futures so unclear
When the futures so unsure
When the futures so unclear
We walk, we walk on
Our time, our time will come
We walk, we walk on
Our time
When the futures so unsure (when the future is so unsure)
When the futures so unclear (when the futures is so unclear)
When the futures so unsure
