

Ben Lee

Ataris

I never met someone so jaded your music's really over rated nothing but a lot of pretentious noise I know that claire danes is your chick to me you're just some ugly prick who got lucky cause he knew the Beastie Boys and I cant stand it a lot goes on but nothing happens but this time that's not true i wrote this song for you to tell you that your 15 minutes of fame are almost up yea one more thing, Ben Lee you suck Bob Dylan must be kinda pissed cause you've been writing all his hits packaged and reprocessed for the world I'd love to kick you in the face break your legs and throw you from a train cause you're such a fucking girl

and I cant stand it

I guess this song's come to an end I'll say good bye until we meet again you better stay out of my town cause if i had way I'd call up snoop, ice cube, and dr. dre we'd come and beat you down
